INTRODUCTION

Moritz Crater was born in Germany in 1703 and is supposed to have been the "Moret Creeter" who arrived at Philadelphia on the ship Mortonhouse August 19, 1729 from the Palatinate in Germany; he died in Morris County, New Jersey April 6, 1772. This genealogy of his descendants is based in part on one included by Rev. T. F. Chambers in his book "The Early Germans of New Jersey" published in 1894; his part of this genealogy has been checked as much as possible with old wills and other original sources and of course a great deal has been added.

I am indebted to Miss Flora Stickney of Hudson, Michigan and to Mrs. Addie Wilson of Pittsford, Michigan for copies of old family records; among others in Michigan who contributed valuable information are Mrs. Lillian Beal of Manitou Beach, Oriel E. Crater of Constantine and Philip Crater of Quincey.

Walter K. Crater, County Clerk of Somerset County, New Jersey obtained many important will outlines, obtained a copy of the family records as shown in the Bible once belonging to John Crater (1779-1835) and now in the possession of Mrs. Florence Romine of Newark, New Jersey and furnished a copy of a chart of Crater genealogy prepared by William Potter. Miss Mary Louisa Crater of Plainfield, New Jersey was raised on the original Crater farm and has furnished a lot of valuable information. J. Floyd Crater of Cleveland, Ohio and his relatives at Newcomerstown, Ohio furnished a copy of an old family chart and obtained many headstone dates. Among those at Newcomerstown is Theodore Crater who was born in 1846 and now (1939) at the age of 93 still works at his job of bank cashier every day.

I wish to acknowledge this assistance and to thank all of the above and any others who furnished data for their cheerful cooperation and help.

As is usual in the preparation of a genealogy there were many who did not answer letters. I ask that readers remember this if any omissions are discovered and there are apt to be many of these; I will appreciate the readers' cooperation in pointing out errors and in furnishing further data and will be very glad to correspond with any of them.

TRADITIONS

There is a tradition that two brothers, Moritz and John Crater ran away from Germany to avoid serving in the German army and that they sold themselves into bondage for a period of years for their passage to America, one to a man in New Jersey and the other to a quaker in Pennsylvania; it is said that John Crater ran away again after arriving in America to escape working out his passage. Just what truth there is in this story is not known; a John Crater appears in the records of Tomsbury Township, New Jersey in 1736 but none of his descendants have been identified.

It is believed by many of this family that they are of Dutch descent rather than German; this may be because Moritz Crater came over on a ship that came from a Dutch port instead of a German one; also during the World War there were many who preferred to believe they were not of German descent. A German funeral text is quoted on the headstone of Moritz Crater (1742-1806) at Fairmount, New Jersey. There were at least two family Bibles printed in German; one of these, evidently the Bible of Philip Crater was printed in German and was seen in Lansing, Michigan in 1891; unfortunately it has since disappeared. Another of these German Bibles evidently belonged to Moritz Crater (1742-1806) and was last seen in the old stone house at Fairmount, N.J.

HISTORY

The Craters are of German descent, their ancestors having lived in the Palatinate; many Palatinos came to America in the early part of the 18th century because of unbearable conditions in Germany imposed upon them by the ruling class; Moritz Crater was undoubtedly one of these.

Moritz Crater and his children followed agriculture for a livelihood and that is true of many of his descendants today, one fact that has made it hard to contact many of them and obtain genealogical data. There are still many of his descendants living in New Jersey but probably due to the very large families in the early part of the 19th century, many of them migrated to points farther west and today he likely has descendants in nearly every state in the union.

Among his many descendants some became quite prominent; among these were: David H. Crater, former Secretary of State of New Jersey; Judge Joseph Foree Crater who disappeared so mysteriously in 1930; Edith Marguerite Crater of Denver, Colorado who married Rex Beach, the author; and her sister, Allene H. Crater who married Fred Stone, the comedian.

OTHER BRANCHES.

Outline histories of other branches is shown in a manuscript entitled "Crater and Grater in America" and will not be repeated here.

SPELLING OF NAME

The English word "crater" and the German word "krater" meaning the mouth of a volcano were taken from a Greek word meaning loving cup or mixing bowl; but the name CRATER, CRATAR, CRETER, CRAYTOR etc. came about as the result of the ideas of the early English speaking settlers on how to spell the German names KRETER, KRATER and CRATER.

It is not known just exactly how Moritz Crater spelled his name in German but it is likely that he used a "C" although some think that he used a "K"; he signed the ship's roll as "Moret Creter" and he signed his will as Morritz Crater. His son, Moritz Crater (1742-1806) signed his will as Moritz Crater while his headstone bears the name Morris Crater and his wife's headstone bears the name Kreter; a stone tablet from the stone house that he built in 1780 has the names Moritz Crater and Margreth Crater. On chips from the headstone of Sophia (Auble) Crater, 1st wife of Matthias Crater, the compiler found the name spelled Cratar twice. In an old Bible once the property of John Crater (1772-1855) the name is spelled Crater, Creator, Kreter and Kreater. Thus it is seen that there seemed to be no fixed spelling in the early colonial days and even as late as 1820. There are some members of the family living today that can remember some of the family spelling it Crater.

Throughout this manuscript it has been spelled CRATER.

GENEALOGY FIRST GENERATION

- 1 MORITZ CRATER b.1703 probably in Germany; d.Apr.6,1772 in Morris County, N.J. and was buried in old cemetery at Fairmount; he was probably the "Morot Creeker" who arrived at Philadelphia from the Palatinate in Germany Aug.13,1743 on the ship Nortonhouse; at first he lived in Burlington County, N.J. presumably working out his passage to America; later he settled in Morris County, building a log cabin on a farm that he bought near Fairmount; m. Elizabeth, maiden name unknown, b.1706; d.Mar.18,1771; his will dated Mar.28,1771 and proved Apr.24, 1772 was signed "Morritz Creator"; he bought over 200 acres of land in New Jersey.

Eve Waldorf, wife of John Waldorf, is mentioned twice in Moritz Crater's will, as being his daughter; Esther, mentioned by Rev.Chambers as being a daughter of Moritz Crater, is mentioned in will only once as "to Thomas Van Baskirk and his wife Ester 40 Pounds". Jacob, the "eldest son" was to have the use of 150 acres at Schooleys Mountain during his life-time; the will also states that Jacob's brother, Moritz and his sister, Eve and John Waldorf were to manage his affairs for him and after his death this property was to go to them.

Chambers shows that Moritz was 60 years of age when he died in 1772 but the old family records show that he was 69 at the time of his death.

Children:

- 2 JACOB "eldest son"; no issue.
- 3 MORITZ b.Feb.24,1742; d. Feb.18,1806.
- 4 PHILIP b.June 30,1744; d. Sept.20,1797.

- 6 and perhaps ESTHER who m.Thomas Van Baskirk.

SECOND GENERATION

- 3 MORITZ CRATER (Moritz) b.Feb.24,1742; d.Feb.18,1806 and buried in old cemetery at Fairmount, N.J.; m.1st Jan.29, 1765 Mary Margaret Wintermuth (daugh.of John George and Mary Elizabeth Wintermuth) b.July 1,1746; d. Feb.13,1800 and buried at Fairmount; he m.2nd Mar.11, 1800 (a) Margaret Teets b.June 17,1752; he inherited the farm where his father had lived and in 1780 he built a stone house just west of the old log cabin; this stone house is still standing (1921) and the present owner is making many needed repairs. Carved on a stone in the gable of this house was the following: "Sept.the 1,1780 Moritz Creter, Margreth Creter, Un.Corn, A.Adams 1780"; This stone is now in the possession of Robert Crater of East Orange, N.J. Moritz Crater's will was proved Feb.28, 1806. Children (10) all by first m. (see next page)

- (a) This date from his will; according to the Bible record made by his son, John, this 2nd m. took place July 28, 1800.

Children (4) see next page:

THIRD GENERATION

18 Children of JOHN CRATER:

- 66 PHILIP b.Sept.12,1789; d.Sept.28,1833.
- 67 ISAAC b.Aug.17,1783; d.Oct.12,1820.
- 68 BLANCA b.Apr.30,1796; d.May 5,1869; m.John Robbins Heath b.Apr.27,1790; had five children.
- 69 LAURANCE b.Feb.14,1790. d. July 11, 1860.

19 MATTHIAS CRATER (Philip, Moritz) b.Dec.12,1773 in New Jersey; d.June 20,1855 in Wayne Co., N.Y.; m.1st Sophia M. Anble b.Apr.6,1773 in Germany; d.July 10,1813 and buried at Spruce Run Cemetery near Elm Garden, N.J.; m.2nd Dec. 14,1813 Mary Fritts (dau.of William and Mary (Abel) Fritts) b.Dec.28,1786; d.Feb.27,1834; m.3rd Mrs.Vandercreek; m.4th Mrs.Deborah Still.

He lived at or near Lebanon, Hunterdon Co., N.J. until about 1824 when he moved to Arcadio, Wayne Co., N.Y.; Chambers says that "he had a very large family all of whom went west except John" but we find that William, Jacob and Sophia all died before he migrated to New York and that his son, Philip as well as his son, John remained in New Jersey, both raising large families. His sons, Matthias, Morris and Andrew and his daughters, Barbara, Christiana, Elizabeth and Martha eventually settled in Michigan; the remainder of his children probably remained in New York State.

William C. Robins, a grandson of Matthias Crater and the son of his daughter, Barbara, obtained valuable family records from an old German Bible at Lansing, Michigan in May 1881; he had these records translated into English at that time and a copy of that translation obtained from Mrs. Edie Wilson, daughter of William C. Robins, has been very helpful in preparing this genealogy. It is unfortunate that we have been unable to locate the old Bible at this time however because of an evident mistake made probably in the translation of the dates of death of John and Jacob; settlement of their estates, with their father, Matthias Crater, as administrator, of the estate of Jacob, show that Jacob died in 1820 and John in 1871; Miss Ruth Robins b.1833 and living in 1935 said that she remembered her Uncle John Crater but had never heard of an Uncle Jacob Crater; therefore the family record showing John died Oct.26,1820 and that Jacob died Feb.19,1871 must be wrong.

Children (16) - 9 by 1st n., 6 by 2nd n. and one by 4th n.:
